Sir,

I understand that the post of Superintendent of the "Lal Bagh" is vacant.

I believe I am fully qualified to fill that post, and if the conditions are satisfactory, I am willing, with Your leave to take it.

To enable You, Sir, to consider my application I beg to enclose herewith a brief record of my career, in which my qualifications are fully stated.

On account of the War, I am unable to secure all the testimonials that I wished to send you with the present applications. I hope to receive some during the next week and will eventually post them by the next mail.

I hope, Sir, you will kindly consider my application and in the expectation of the full particulars about the conditions

To whom it may concern.

I have the greatest pleasure in giving my reference and strongly recommending M. A. Vanwyngaerden, of Louvain to any employer desirous of getting into touch with a very learned and capable man.

I have known M. A. Vanwyngaerde, officially and privately for the last five years. He has frequently visited me in England when sent on official mission. I have visited him in Louvain at the General Offices of the General Federation of Belgian Horticulturists, affiliated to the Board of Agriculture, where M. Vanwyngaerden held the very respected position of Agricultural Adviser.

His technical as well as practical knowledge of agriculture and horticulture are a common fact in Belgium where he was considered as one of the most capable lecturers, and frequently sent on special missions amongst the growers, by the Belgian Board of Agriculture. He is considered as a real expert in his branch, and any employer desirous to improve his estate will find in him a most valuable and hard working colleague.

I authorize M. Vanwyngaerden to give my name as Reference as I cannot speak too highly of him, and of the intercourse of pleasant relationship I have had with him for many years past, and my best wishes accompany him in any venture he may contemplate while in England
